

NEW MEXICO FOOD SAFETY MANAGER CERTIFICATION

The State of New Mexico requires that a person in charge of a food establishment demonstrate knowledge of food safety. One way to do this is to take an approved New Mexico Food Safety Manager Certification.

FnaSafety offers the widest selection of training and certification choices that are approved by the State of New Mexico. We provide the ServSafe Food Protection Manager Certification Course and Exam, the Learn2Serve-360 Food Safety Manager Certification Course and Exam, the TAP Series Food Safety Manager Certification Course, The National Registry of Food Safety Professionals, the National Environmental Health Association (NEHA), and the SafeMark Certification.

Food and Alcohol Safety Classes also offers Food Handler training and certification, Responsible Alcohol Service, Allergen Awareness Training and HACCP. Online courses are available nationwide and instructor led live classes are currently available throughout the country.

The New Mexico Food Safety Manager Certification is valid for up to 5 years.

Most courses are available in English and Spanish and some offer Chinese, while many exams are also available in Japanese, Vietnamese, French Canadian and Portuguese.
